CIRCULATING THROUGHOUT THE VAST AGRICULTURAL AREA OF PALM BEACH COUNTY

Gulf Stream Warms Eastern Section Palm Beach County

Palm Beach County should be thankful to the Gulf Stream for several reasons... especially for its moderating effect on weather according to County Agent M. U. Mounts.

For it is this same effect which is believed to have saved the county's coastal or rangeline farm crops during the same cold spell last week end which destroyed an estimated millions of dollars worth of vegetables in the Glades.

"In the same way that the Gulf Stream influences the weather of Great Britain and European countries, it affects South Florida," Mr. Mounts said.

Visitors coming to South Florida think they're traveling 300 miles south to this county but they're not, the agent said. "They're traveling 200 miles south and about 100 miles east."

"That puts us right next to the Gulf Stream," he stated.—Palm Beach Post.

Farm Bureau Will Elect Officers At Pahokee Meeting

A meeting will be held at the Pahokee City Hall Tuesday night December 6 for the election of officers of the newly organized Farm Bureau and the appointment of committees. All farmers who are interested in joining or would like more information about the organization are invited to attend.

The Farm Bureau is a state and National organization of farmers and their families and its purpose is to serve the interest of farm people in every way possible.

Committees are appointed to work on such problems as: equitable taxes, fair freight rates, adequate credit at fair rates of interest, a better marketing system, better health protection and wider opportunities for rural youth.

The Farm Bureau provides adequate insurance protection for its members at very substantial savings and in many Counties local chapters operate cooperative services of many kinds including the Blue Cross health plan.

Twenty nine Everglades farmers have already joined and these are urged to come to the meeting next Tuesday night and invite their farmer friends and neighbors to come with them.

Ipock And Thompson New Rotary Members

Louis Ipock and Joe Thompson of Pahokee became new members of the Rotary club at the regular weekly luncheon yesterday. They were inducted by John Dulary in his usual inimitable manner. He also presented the new members with Rotary pins and leaflets giving necessary information for those just entering Rotary work.

Rardin Plan For Topping Roadside Trees To Be Executed By State Road Dept.

PAUL RARDIN
Canal Point
COUNTY COMMISSIONER

MERRILL P. BARBER
Vero Beach
MEMBER STATE ROAD DEPT.

On a recent trip to the Lake Region State Road Department Member Merrill P. Barber smiled for the photographer following a conference and first hand inspection trip of Glades roads with County Commissioner Rardin. Rardin's smile was forthcoming when the road board member announced that he had issued instructions to top all pine trees alongside Glades roads to prevent road blocks during hurricanes. Commissioner Rardin and SRD Member Barber have been friends for more than 15 years and the visitor's trip into the Glades was made all the more pleasant when he renewed many acquaintances here.

State Road Department Member Merrill P. Barber of Vero Beach has informed County Commissioner Paul Rardin that he has issued instructions to the division engineer to top the trees alongside the highways in the Everglades. Following the 1947 and 1949 hurricanes—Commissioner Rardin, through his newspaper—the Everglades News—started a campaign to have the trees topped in order that the towns in the Lake Okechobee Region would not be isolated for days while trees blown down by the storms were removed from the highways.

Rardin's plan to top the trees gathered momentum and many civic groups and chambers of commerce throughout the county volunteered their aid in presenting to the road department the hazard of falling trees during hurricanes. After a first hand inspection trip by Mr. Barber he informed Commissioner Rardin that the SRD division office in Fort Lauderdale had been instructed to top the trees.

The technicality of topping the trees and at what height to top them has been left to Division Engineer J. M. Watson at Fort Lauderdale. Mr. Barber told the local commissioner. Engineer Watson in telephone conversation yesterday morning with Mr. Rardin, said that several plans are under study and a definite plan will be announced soon. One plan calls for topping the trees off to a six foot height. As the stumps die out they will be replaced with concrete posts to protect motorists from the roadside canals. Another plan is to top them to a height of 12 or 14 feet, thus allowing the hurricane winds to whip thru them without doing any damage.

Whatever plan is devised by the SRD Engineer and his men will be acceptable to residents of the Lake Region who have been marooned in the past when the highways were blocked with the giant-sized trees across the roads. More than 50 miles of trees are to be topped under the plan.

EXECUTIVE BOARD

The December meeting of the Canal Point Parent-Teacher Association will be held in the school auditorium Monday, Dec. 5, at 8 p. m., with Mrs. Boyd Vorhees, president, presiding. Mrs. Vorhees will also preside at a meeting of the PTA executive board at the school this Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Jeanine Mock Heads Jr. Red Cross Council

Jeanine Mock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Mock of Pahokee, was recently elected chairman of the Junior Red Cross Council for Glades Elementary Schools. Other council officers chosen were Ronnie Hitchcock of Canal Point, vice chairman, and Yvonne McTaggart of Belle Glade, secretary.

City Pahokee Gets $10,720 Bid To Move B. Pt. Water Lines

The Pahokee City Council at a special meeting Monday morning accepted the bid of N. D. Baxter, Miami contractor, to move its Bacom Point water main at 89 cents a foot.

The city has approximately 13,400 feet of eight and six-inch pipe that must be moved in accordance with State Road Department regulations to a line 24 feet from the center of the new State Road 717 which is being built to connect Barfield Highway with the Palm Beach County-Glades Airport on Bacom Point. The contract or was given 75 days in which to move the main.

The Florida Power and Light Company is having its service lines on Bacom Point Road moved back several feet and the Reynolds and Smith Construction Company is making good progress in removing the many trees from the site of the roadbed for the new boulevard.

...Throws Kink Into Operations In Everglades Area

Farmers in this section are busy salvaging green beans from fields which were damaged by frost Saturday night when the mercury dipped as low as 28 in the Canal Point-Pahokee area.

It is estimated that from 85-90 per cent of the fall green bean crop was destroyed. According to Lewis J. Fraser, sales manager at W. H. Vann Inc., one of the oldest and largest packing plants in Pahokee, shipments of green beans dropped from 50 to 55 cars per day before the frost to 8 or 19 cars Monday.

The peak of the fall season would have been reached this week had it not been for the frost.

It is believed that farmers will leave the damaged beans in the field and salvage the beans they will produce from new growth. Some farmers in this section last year almost paid expenses on beans salvaged from damaged vines.

Corn was damaged some but is still being harvested. Celery and cabbage also escaped damage. These crops will be ready for harvest around the middle of December.

Hundreds of packing house employees and bean pickers and contractors were thrown out of jobs. The pickers will probably go to other sections but there is little work elsewhere for packing plant workers as this section of the Everglades is the only section in Florida that grades and packs beans. The other sections sell hte beans ungraded.

The power of democracy is proved every year—when we buy Christmas Seals. Over forty years ago, Americans got together to fight tuberculosis—rallying around a little symbol called a Christmas Seal that has helped save four million American lives. Let's keep on winning against TB—by buying Christmas Seals.

RARDIN DEFENDS FAITH IN SANTA

P. O. Gorder, the genial managing editor of The Lake Worth Daily Leader, wrote the following story about one transaction at the county commission meeting Monday:

County Commissioner Paul Rardin, Canal Point, has an undying faith in Santa Claus, and he told other commissioners at Monday's meeting that he didn't want any other county employees to lose faith in the Grand Old Man either, so Rardin made a motion that all county employees' checks be issued to them on December 19. It was quickly approved, but with a twinkle in his eye, one commissioner asked Rardin if he would exclude the county commissioners from his proposal. Rardin smiled in return, but said nothing, and that is one time that silence didn't mean consent, as all county officials and workers will get their checks in time to use the money for Christmas shopping.

Col. A. C. Matthews, chief engineer of the state division of water survey and research, has stated that the new flood control will not only protect the wealthy tourist areas from the threat of shortened water supply and flood damage but will also protect agriculture along the coast and further inland.

News Notes From State Capital

TALLAHASSEE—Creditors of the state are keeping their fingers crossed these days until the first outpourings of the new sales tax start coming in during December. Comptroller C. M. Gay has given orders to postpone payment of some bills for 60 to 90 days, because the general fund of the state already is operating in the red. He had told the cabinet this fund, which pays most of the state's bills, already owes for more than it has. There will be enough, he added, to pay welfare and school needs; and to meet state salaries. The pinch will be tighter this year than usual, he said, because the legislature diverted cigarette and gasoline tax money to cities and counties that otherwise would be available now to pay state bills. The sales tax to make up the difference hasn't yet started to arrive in Tallahassee in any volume.

TALLAHASSEE—Cigarette tax money under the new laws could be pledged for building a war memorial auditorium only if it were found to be for a joint city and state use, according to Attorney General Richard W. Ervin. He cited the requirement that the new money for cities must be used for certain designated purposes declared to be joint state and municipal. In other opinions, the attorney general held (1) that a ten-year-old boy may be a witness to a marriage ceremony if a court would consider him mentally competent, (2) the state hotel commission does not have jurisdiction over convalescent home, nursing homes and sanitoriums, and (3) whether a restaurant operating a free bingo game is conducting a lottery would depend upon whether awards are made by chance or as a result of skill.

TALLAHASSEE—New red blood will be pumped into a revived Governor's Safety Council, according to Governor Fuller Warren, and an intensified drive will be renewed to save lives and reduce accidents on Florida Highways. Back from Biloxi southern conference of governors, Warren said he had told the other 14 governors of the passage of the cattle fencing bill, effective next June, and declared many cattle owners already are getting their stock off the highways and behind fence. He said they felt this law would bring many more visitors to Florida and encourage them to stay longer where they could motor without the cow-on-the-highway danger.

TALLAHASSEE—United States Senator Spessard Holland told the citizens here that five great issues demand solution. They are: The Taft-Hartley labor act, whose retention he favors, the Brannan farm plan, the Truman civil rights program, compulsory health insurance and deficit spending, all of which he opposes. Senator Holland is touring the state in a series of speeches reporting on the recent session of congress.

TALLAHASSEE—The Florida supreme court has announced that on January 1, new stream-lined rules for handling civil lawsuits will take effect. These are the product of years of work on the part of members of the Florida State Bar association, and of members of the court. They have jointly evolved new rules that eliminate much of the dead wood of legal practice, and which conform to the revised rules already in effect in federal courts. Present rules have changed but little since they were adopted in 1892, except for some revision in the chancery acts. Under the new rules, only issues of fact that are in dispute will be presented to juries. The old rule day is abolished. The result of other changes will be to speed up the determination of law suits.

Cinematic Chatter

By Malcolm Miller

The first thing that strikes your ear is a voice... the voice of Addie Ross, low, warm and insinuating... and this begins the story of "A Letter to Three Wives", starring and featuring Jeanne Crain, Linda Darnell, Ann Southern, Barbara Lawrence, Paul Douglas, Kirk Douglas and Jeffrey Lynn, which will be on the screen of the Prince Theatre, Sunday-Monday.

It is a story that is designed to bring forth peals of gay laughter from the customers, for it is loaded with situations that make for hilarity... not for the three wives... not for the male member of the cast... but for the audience who are there to see the unraveling of one of the most charming stories of domesticity filmed in a long time.

I don't want to give the plot away to you and spoil your enjoyment, so I'll just say you can get ready for some screeching laughter. See you at the movies—Mal.

The spring convention of the Florida Press Association will be held at Silver Springs.

Baby Whale Dies As Mother Seeks It On St. Pete Beach

ST. PETERSBURG—Death came last week to a 1500 pound pigmy sperm whale and her beach calf after full attempts of beach residents to unite the two in the freedom of the Gulf of Mexico. The calf was born last Friday high on the sands of St. Petersburg Beach, when the mother apparently came into shallow water seeking safety and high winds and receding tides left her stranded.

Three beach residents, John Fieber, Chuck Rettberg and Bill Bell, carried the calf to the Gulf and with the aid of a truck, they towed the mother to sea. Regaining her strength, the mother whale swam out to sea but the baby whale kept returning to the beach until finally it was put into a tank.

But during the night the mother whale returned to the beach, apparently in search of her offspring, and there on the beach she died. Shortly afterwards the baby whale died in its tank. Remains of the baby whale have been sent to Marineland's laboratories, near St. Augustine, for scientific study and to determine what caused its death.

State Chamber Closes Meeting, Re-Elects Most Of 1949 Officers

JACKSONVILLE—The Florida State Chamber of Commerce at its annual meeting here last week re-elected most of its 1949 officers and adopted a resolution asking for a public hearing on the state budget before budget recommendations are prepared by the legislature.

Walter L. Hays, president of the American Fire and Casualty Company, of Orlando, was re-elected as second term as president of the state body. Harold Cole was re-named executive vice-president in charge of the offices here.

John W. Moore was elected to succeed Frank L. Salisbury, retired, as a director of District 2. Both men are from Jacksonville. Walton Rex, of Orlando, will succeed President Hays as a director from District 3. Hays replaced Past President A. Y. Milam, Jacksonville, as president of the executive committee, while E. B. Rush, of Jacksonville, replaced J. P. Walker as District 2 member on the executive board.

Five new directors at large were named: Dr. W. H. Weyer, Miami; John D. Montgomery, Miami Beach; Harry Fagan, Fort Myers; Van H. Priest, Madison; and E. B. Rush of Jacksonville. The chamber voted to hold its 1950 convention in Tampa.

President Hays in his report said: "I think it is up to the Florida State Chamber of Commerce, the Bankers' Association and all associations of every kind in the state to teach the philosophy that the people support the government and not the government the people. The pendulum of our National Government is swinging to the left. We are swinging towards Socialism and away from free enterprise and free competition. Of course, the pendulum will eventually swing back, but a lot of damage will be done first. When we are clocking Florida at election time, we should think about electing the kind of officials who will help swing this pendulum back to the center."

MUSEUM IS PUBLICIZED

SARASOTA—The main portion of the 128-page publication Art News Annual has been devoted this year to the Ringling Museum of Art here. Fourteen paintings from the Ringling collection have been reproduced in color in the Annual, marking the first time that any of the nearly 500 paintings has thus far been reproduced. The background of the work he collected is presented in the publication by Alfred M. Frankfort, editor and publisher. Also included in the article is a discussion of Baroque art by A. Everett Austin, Jr., director of the museum.

Lions Will Sponsor Explorer Scout Troop

Members of the Canal Point Lions Club at the regular dinner meeting Monday night voted to sponsor the new Explorer Scout Troop that is being organized in this community for senior scouts from 15 to 18 years of age. John S. Harrington, Jr., volunteered to serve as counselor for the group and a special Lions committee will be appointed in charge of the sponsorship.

President A. Roswell Harrington reported the Canal Point Lions Club at the present time is running fourth place in the 1949 attendance records of clubs within the State. He also said that the club needs to receive only two more new members between now and January in order for it to meet its membership quota. It now has 44 members.

It was announced the old boy scout hut will be razed and sound materials will be salvaged for use in constructing a shelter house for picnickers at the new county recreation park being developed in Canal Point.

Child Is Killed In Truck Accident

A two-and-a-half-year-old child was killed in Pahokee Wednesday afternoon when she fell under the wheels of a truck driven by her grandfather, police reported.

The child, Alice Jeanette McDonald was in her front yard with a playmate when she darted out in front of the truck driven by the grandfather, Robert Holmes, as he pulled away from the curb, police said. The driver said he did not see the child and the right front and rear wheels ran over her. She was rushed immediately to the Everglades Memorial Hospital where she was pronounced dead on arrival.

The accident was investigated by Police Chief A. E. Morgan, who said it was "unavoidable." The child is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry McDonald, Pahokee.

As of October 17, 1949 Palm Beach County had 89 tuberculosis patients in State Sanatoria and Veterans Administration Hospital's Christmas Seals fight Tuberculosis—buy and use them.

Be Careful During The Hunting Season

TAMPA—With the hunting season in full swing we are reminded that more than 100 persons were killed or injured during the 1948 hunting season, and on November 22 the state hunting season opens and we are again asking the hunters to be careful.

In one of the western states there were 74 persons killed in the first week of the hunting season; of this number 14 died of exhaustion. Asher Frank of the Florida Safety Council cautions elderly persons not to over exert themselves and be careful of a heart attack.

Frank again reminds hunters that the farmer is an early riser and not to mistake one for game.

WEST PALM BEACH — Sheriff John Kirk's office Tuesday launched an investigation of the death of Lionel S. Provost, 53, of 527½ Jessamine st. here late Monday night after an automobile accident shortly after sundown Sunday evening.

Provost and his wife, Ethel, were brought to St. Mary's hospital Sunday night. They were riding on a motorcycle without lights, and apparently on the wrong side of the road, when they ran into an automobile on State Road 7, three miles north of the Boynton Beach road. Negro Child Burned To Death In Pahokee

A three-year old negro child, David Thompson lost his life in a raging fire that started in colored town, Pahokee, around 10:30 p. m. Saturday, and destroyed five houses before it was brought under control by the Pahokee Fire Department.

Although the cause of the blaze is unknown it is believed to have started from an exploding oil stove, according to Fire Chief Marvin LeVina. The child and his brothers, Cyril Thompson, age 5, were according to reports, asleep and alone in one of the houses destroyed by the flames. The older boy severely burned on the face and arms was rescued by a bystander who also made a heroic attempt to bring out the younger child without success, according to Constable Francis Cross.

There was no wind blowing but the fire seemed to spread rapidly in all directions in the clear, frosty air, threatening the colored Baptist Church and several other adjoining buildings before the volunteer firemen got it under control.

Approximately $224,700,000 has been raised from the sale of Christmas Seals since 1907 to finance the tuberculosis control work of the voluntary tuberculosis associations. During the same period, the TB rate has been cut nearly 85 per cent and the lives of more than 4,000,000 who would otherwise have died from this disease, have been saved.

WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT TB RESEARCH

In universities and laboratories throughout the country, America's scientists are conducting an unceasing war against tuberculosis. This year alone, more than 22 separate yet co-ordinated studies are being aided by the National Tuberculosis Association and its affiliates—made possible by your purchase of Christmas Seals.

Under investigation are such questions as the chemistry and virulence of the tuberculosis germ, factors influencing the course of early tuberculosis, the reason some strains of germs become resistant to streptomycin, and the effectiveness of a combination of drugs in tuberculosis treatment.

Since 1904, the overall TB program has helped cut the death rate by eighty-five per cent—yet TB still kills more people between 15 and 34 than any other disease.

County To Protect Its Workers By New Group Insurance

The County Commission Monday accepted, on recommendation of a committee, a group insurance bid submitted by the Prudential Life Insurance Co. covering 206 county employees.

Assistant County Auditor R. B. McKee said the insurance plan will cost $630 monthly, provide for a $1,000 life insurance policy, $8 a day in hospital expenses plus $80 for extras, and $150 surgery fees. The insurance covers hospitalization for 31 days for each illness.

Under the plan, the families of the county employees may be covered for $3.08 a month, he said. The family coverage includes children up to 19 years of age. There is no age limit on the county worker, he added.

Commissioners thanked eight other insurance companies which had submitted bids, "all of them with only slight financial differences," County Commission Chairman Lake Lytal said.

On recommendation of County Engineer J. M. Boyd, the commission awarded a contract to Henderson Roofing Co. for repairs to county hospital rooms. The firm, which offered the lowest of two bids submitted, agreed to roof the sanatorium for $2,383, and the service building for $1,436. — Pam Beach Post.

Need Water System To Start Grass On New Hospital Grounds

The work of grading and rolling the hundreds of loads of muck, marl and sand that was hauled by county trucks to fill in the Pahokee Hospital grounds to street level has been finished by County crews and immediate plans call for the sowing of grass seed to establish a sod as quickly as possible, according to I. J. Frasure, Jr., hospital superintendent. To water the grounds and keep the dust down while the grass is getting started a portable pipe system of irrigation is urgently needed. Any grower who owns such a system, and does not intend to use it for next few weeks will be doing his community a real service if he loans it to the hospital until the grass sod is established.

The landscaping of the hospital grounds will be under the direction of the Island Landscape Company, West Palm Beach.

Plans were also made for a Christmas party for the children of the church to be held at the home of Mrs. C. T. Jackson, with Mrs. Norman Kennedy and Mrs. Bleech to assist with the entertaining. Named on a committee in charge of the upkeep and beautification of the church grounds were Mrs. W. A. Cross, Sr., Mrs. W. H. Vann, Mrs. W. A. Cross, Jr., Mrs. Albert Fremd and Mrs. Jackson.

It was announced that the ordination of their rector, Rev. Latimer, will take place at a special ceremony in St. Stephens Episcopal Church, Coconut Grove, on Thursday, Dec. 8. All members of the local church have been invited to attend.

Of the funds raised through the sale of Christmas Seals, 95 per cent remain within the state where raised to fight financial and local tuberculosis control work. The remaining 5 per cent is forwarded to the National Tuberculosis Association.

CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

"God the Only CAUSE AND CREATOR" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, throughout the world on Sunday, December 4.

The Golden Text is: "Unto thee, O God, do we give thanks; unto thee do we give thanks: for that thy name is near they wondrous works declare" (Ps. 75:1).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible:

"I am the Lord, and there is none else, there is no God beside me: I girded thee, though thou hast not known me" (Isa. 45:5).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "God is individual, incorporeal. He is divine Principle, Love, the universal cause, the only creator, and there is no other self-existence. He is all-inclusive, and is reflected by all that is real and eternal and by nothing else. He fills all space, and it is impossible to conceive of such omnipresence and individuality except as infinite Spirit or Mind. Hence all is Spirit and spiritual" (331:18).

Attorney General Looks For Illegal Telephone Wires

TALLAHASSEE—Attorney General Richard Ervin has started a hunt for illegal bookmaking connections in the private wire contracts of Florida telephone and telegraph companies. He said he has one of his assistants examining a big batch of contracts as the first step in enforcing the new law that denies communications facilities for use in gambling on races and other sports events.

The contracts were filed by the wire companies with the State Railroad and Public Utilities Commission, which has the primary responsibility for enforcing the new law. The commission furnished Ervin copies at his request. He and all state attorneys also have authority to start proceedings under the law.

All the contracts that Ervin got are those that were in effect when the law was passed last Spring amid sensational legislative bribery charges. Lewis W. Petteway, general counsel for the railroad commission, said his agency has approved 125 contracts for special wires that were filed after passage of the law.

Although tuberculosis kills more young people between 15 and 34 years of age than any other disease, it may strike at any age.

Jacob A. Rills, born in Denmark 100 years ago, wrote an article in 1907 urging a Christmas Seal Sale to raise funds to fight tuberculosis. His idea was adopted later that year by the late Miss Emily P. Bissell who put on a Seal Sale in Wilmington, Del.

Western Cattlemen To See Florida Cows Knee-Deep In Grass

MIAMI—Among the more than 2,000 cattlemen expected to attend the 53rd Annual Convention of the American National Live Stock Association here January 4-7, there will be many on the lookout for greener pastures into which to move their herds, John DuPuis, Chairman of the Convention Committee, said today.

Severe western winters and curtailment of rangeland expansion in the west by government land holdings, said DuPuis, are causing ranchers to look for better locations for their billion-dollar businesses.

DuPuis said many of the stockmen attending the Convention are planning early arrival or stayovers in Florida to look over the state's potentialities.

DuPuis, a Dade county dairyman and cattleman, said Florida will be able to show the visiting cattlemen a winter scene new to most of them. Accustomed to having to house and grain-feed their stock through grim winters, the western visitors will see Florida cattle knee-deep in lush pasture.

Florida will be able to show the cattlemen great advances in the building up of herds and development of pastures, said the Miami stockman. The state now has more than 500,000 acres of planted pasture, with several million acres capable of development, he said. Moreover, he added, the by-products of the citrus and sugar industries have created a supply of good homegrown feed to supplement year-round grazing.

Decision of a large number of the western cattlemen to move their operations to Florida, said DuPuis, could raise this state to the forefront of cattle-producing areas. Florida now fluctuates between 14th and 19th among cattle-producing states, he said.

Capias Is Issued For Wallis' Arrest

Embezzlement of $13,645 of City of Belle Glade funds was charged to Alva Lafayette Wallis, former Belle Glade city clerk and tax collector, late Wednesday.

The criminal court information filed by County Solicitor T. Harold Williams charged that Wallis, in his official capacity, received the $13,645 "at different times between Dec. 5, 1947 and Oct. 19, 1949" and that on Oct. 19 he did feloniously embezzle and feloniously and fraudulently convert to his own use "the money."

A capias for his arrest was sent to Sheriff John Kirk's office.

According to Nov. 9 press reports from Belle Glade, Wallis, city official there since 1942, resigned after a shortage of $22,332 was found in the city's accounts. He was reported bonded in the amount of $22,278.

No charges had been filed against him earlier at request of the bonding company—the Continental Casualty Co., of Chicago.

The information listed state witnesses as Mayor Harold J. Rabun, Treasurer Junius T. Harris, City Commissioners N. D. Lloyd and W. L. Collins, City Attorney H. D. Beck and W. B. Rhodes, a public accountant, all of Belle Glade.

Memorial Service Held For Mrs. Denton

Chapter 184 held its annual Thanksgiving program on Thursday night of last week with Mrs. Jessie Barnes, worthy matron, and Dave W. Young, worthy patron, presiding. At the conclusion of the program refreshments were served by Mrs. Sadie Barwick and Mrs. Marjorie Mock, hostesses.
